

University Baptist Church (UBC) is proud to perform wedding ceremonies for the LGBTA community.

We are a faith community with a noble tradition of supporting full equality for LGBT people. UBC was the first Baptist church to appoint an openly lesbian pastor, the Rev. Nadean Bishop, who served from 1992-2000. UBC is a member of the Association of Welcoming and Affirming Baptists.

UBC's current pastor, the Reverend Doug Donley, has been an impassioned advocate of LGBT rights and equality. Doug has held national leadership positions with Soulforce, an organization dedicated to LGBT inclusion and the elimination of spiritual oppression through nonviolent means. Doug is also a founding member of the Coalition for a Respectful U., an inter-faith coalition whose mission is to create a safe and welcoming environment for LGBT students at the University of Minnesota. In 2005, Doug received the University's Breaking the Silence Award in recognition of his work on behalf of LGBT people. In 2004, under Doug's leadership, the congregation of UBC passed a statement affirming marriage rights for same-sex couples. A copy of the statement is available on UBC's website, www.ubcmn.org. Doug and the congregation were also very active in the campaign to secure marriage rights for all passed by the MN Legislature in May of 2013.

Ceremonies begin at $500 and include use of the sanctuary, piano and organ. Pastor's services, musicians, soloists and reception rooms are also available for additional fees.

Our intention at University Baptist Church is to use inclusive language in our worship.

UBC's sanctuary is wheelchair-accessible.

Please contact the church office to coordinate your celebration:
